

CERTIFIED MOUNTAIN AREA SPECIALIST

Certification Application

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

ADDRESS: _____

PHONE # _____

LICENSE #: _____ EMAIL ADDRESS: _____

Core Classes

Date Taken

- CMAS Onsite Wastewater Treatment Systems _____
- CMAS Water Quality, Safety, and Drilling _____
- CMAS Groundwater, Wells, and Water Rights _____
- CMAS Wildfire Home Assessment _____
- CMAS Mountain Wildfire Safety & Mitigation _____
- CMAS Planning and Zoning Issues - Jefferson County _____
- CMAS Planning and Zoning - Clear Creek & Park Counties _____
- CMAS Mountain Survey _____
- CMAS Advanced Title _____
- Wildfire II Home Assessment, Defensible Space, and Home Hardening _____

Elective Classes

Date Taken

- CMAS Living with Wildlife and Colorado Law _____
- CMAS Home Inspections in the Foothills - Inspector Panel _____
- CMAS Homeowners Insurance issues in the Foothills _____
- CMAS Radon issues in Real Estate Transactions _____
- CMAS Appraisals Basics for Mountain Properties _____
- CMAS Noxious Weeds and High Altitude Horticulture _____
- CMAS Basics of Building on Land in the Foothills _____
- CMAS Mountain Real Estate Law _____
- CMAS Expert Panel - Avoiding & Solving Common Pitfalls Foothills Transactions _____
- CMAS Conservation Easement _____

Mountain Home Transactions (not needed by Affiliates)

Closing Date

- Address _____
- Residential Commercial Vacant Land
- Address _____
- Residential Commercial Vacant Land

Must complete a total of eight classes within 24 months of first class and close on 2 mountain properties (as either buyer's or seller's agent) to obtain CMAS designation. At least four of the eight classes must be core classes. Must complete one (1) class per year to maintain designation, following the year designation was earned.

It is the responsibility of the Licensee to retain certificates for record keeping purposes. MMAR assumes no liability for misplaced certificates.

To what address would you like your certificate and pin mailed?
